Ms Carle,

We absolutely loved Stephanie Jackson and her portrayal of Elizabeth Keckly. It was just fantastic. We had over 80 people here. This was something new for us, to do a drama, especially a live performance, and we didn't offer food to get them to come!

We also loved the dressmaking aspect of the performance. Everybody just raved, it was just fantastic and we can't thank you enough. And thank you to Stephanie, too, because she really portrayed the character so well. How convincingly she could tell this story like it was part of her own legacy, her own experience. She just kept us enthralled!

Most Sincerely,

Sharyn Holmes, Director
